The palatial Italian masterpiece.

PALAIS EVENTS

There's always been a touch of Venice to Vienna.

Taste the finer side of life at Palais Ferstel.
At events from sophisticated receptions, exclusive dinners and high-powered meetings to exquisite galas.
The Großer Ferstelsaal, Kleiner Ferstelsaal and the colonnaded courtyard can accommodate up to 700 people.

A piece of Italy in the heart of Vienna? Yes, and it's all down to Mr. Ferstel. Or "von Ferstel", seeing as he was a nobleman. After all, we are in Vienna! Unlike many other palaces in the Austrian capital Palais Ferstel is not named after its owner, with that honour going instead to its architect. But not until it was completely renovated in 1982.

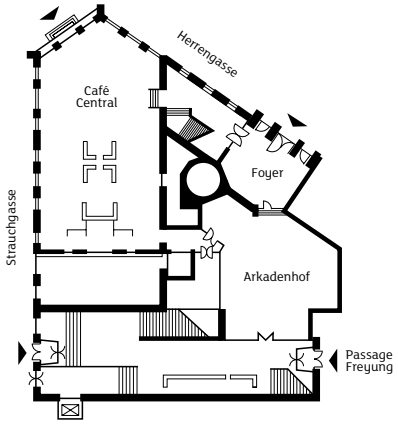

Otherwise it would have ended up being known as the national bank or the stock exchange building, in recognition of the roles originally intended for this opulent structure built by Heinrich von Ferstel between 1855 and 1860. Be that as it may, Palais Ferstel continues to cast its magic on guests at meetings and parties alike, with its fantastic Venetian-cum-Florentine-cum-Trecento architecture, something you won't find anywhere else in the capital. With stunning rooms, dazzling chandeliers and an impressive colonnaded courtyard. An Italian Palazzo – in the heart of Vienna's historic first district, on Freyung.

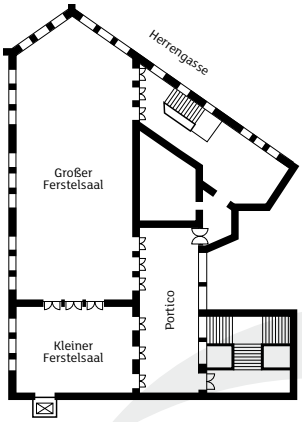

Additionally, Palais Ferstel will pamper the palate with wonderfully crafted culinary delights.
